Baltimore, Dec 16th 1846

My Dear Madam:

I shall dispatch this afternoon, by Express, one hundred copies of my present issue, as a small donation to your Fair. I sell them at 4cts but you will, doubtless, be able to get 6¢ as readily. A glance at the contents will show you that it is a good number. Mark John Smith's letter to his inhuman "Cousin" Governor Smith of Va! See also the Sketch headed "The Power of Kindness, &c. &c. I suppose you got my article for the "Bell." It was hurriedly written as the MS showed — but I have no doubt you made something out of it.

Hoping your noble-motived labors may be crowned with abundant success, I remain

Very Truly Yrs
